Kazoku

[ká zòkù] [家族] (noun) Family

Welcome to Kazoku, High Point University's fun, teppanyaki-style Japanese restaurant. Students love HPU because it feels like a family. And at Kazoku, family gather around the "kitchen table" to enjoy live-action cooking with engaging chefs and great friends.

Kazoku is the perfect complement to the innovative 1924 PRIME — HPU's flagship fine dining restaurant and learning lab located in the R.G. Wanek Center. Expanding upon HPU's "Your Professional Brand Series," and in partnership with the Career and Professional Development Office, Kazoku features business etiquette, leadership, and life skills sessions.

1924 PRIME, Alo, and Kazoku Restaurants allow HPU students to build confidence in professional settings beyond the office and gain international cuisine and culture experience. Just one more example of why High Point University is The Premier Life Skills University.
